

On September 30, 2011, Barnes & Noble acquired the Borders customer list. The transferred personally identifiable information in the customer list includes customer e-mail addresses and purchase history. No credit card data was transferred. If you would like to opt out of having your customer data transferred, please follow the instructions below by November 2, 2011.

Four Convincing Reasons to Stay in the Barnes & Noble Family

(Of course, if you still want to opt-out, we make that fast and easy.)

1. Get regular discounts on bestsellers, our latest discoveries, and more, delivered to your inbox. Millions of our customers love getting these.
2. We're the nation's book experts. That means terrific recommendations, personalized to you.
3. You'll be part of a community that consists of 700 stores and 40,000 dedicated booksellers who are ready to serve you.

AND...

4. If you are an active Borders Rewards Plus Member, we'll respect that! We'll offer you a Barnes & Noble Membership for a limited term so you can enjoy benefits such as discounts on our Award- Winning NOOK® tablets and eReaders.

We haven't persuaded you?

If you still choose to opt-out, just submit your email address associated with your Borders account below. You will receive an email confirmation; simply click through and you've opted out. It's that easy!

Email Address:

Don't have a live e-mail address? Click here.

Submit

 This FREE Barnes & Noble Membership will be valid up until 1/31/2012. Eligible Borders Rewards Plus Members will be contacted via email with more information about this special offer. If you have opted-out of having your Borders customer data transferred to Barnes & Noble, you will not be eligible for this offer.
